Practice 5.4 - Step Up

The board has a policy which limits the tenure of its independent directors to nine years without further extension.

Note: To qualify for adoption of this Step Up practice, a listed issuer must have a formal policy which limits the tenure of an independent director to nine years without further extension i.e. shareholders' approval to retain the director as an independent director beyond nine years.
Application :	Not Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice :

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.5

Appointment of board and senior management are based on objective criteria, merit and with due regard for diversity in skills, experience, age, cultural background and gender.

Directors appointed should be able to devote the required time to serve the board effectively. The board should consider the existing board positions held by a director, including on boards of non-listed companies. Any appointment that may cast doubt on the integrity and governance of the company should be avoided.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Nomination and Remuneration Committee (“NRC”) is tasked to review candidates for Board appointment. In conducting their review, the NRC will carry out processes in assessing the existing composition of the Board and its collective strength, the candidate’s skill sets, expertise, experience as well as integrity, existing commitments and potential conflict of interests. The NRC has used these guided measures in recommending candidates for appointments to the Board.

Measure	:	Please explain the measure(s) the company has taken or intend to take to adopt the practice.
Timeframe	:	Choose an item.

Intended Outcome

Stakeholders are able to form an opinion on the overall effectiveness of the board and individual directors.

Practice 6.1

The board should undertake a formal and objective annual evaluation to determine the effectiveness of the board, its committees and each individual director. The board should disclose how the assessment was carried out its outcome, actions taken and how it has or will influence board composition.

For Large Companies, the board engages an independent expert at least every three years, to facilitate objective and candid board evaluation.

Note: For a Large Company to qualify for adoption of this practice, it must undertake annual board evaluation and engage an independent expert at least every three years to facilitate the evaluation.
Application	: Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	: An assessment on the effectiveness of the Board, Board Committees, and each individual director is carried out annually. The objective is to improve the Board's effectiveness by identifying gaps, maximise strengths and address weaknesses. The Nomination and Remuneration Committee oversees the overall evaluation process. The results of the evaluation were presented to the Nomination and Remuneration Committee and the Board at their respective meetings.

Intended Outcome

The level and composition of remuneration of directors and senior management take into account the company’s desire to attract and retain the right talent in the board and senior management to drive the company’s long-term objectives.

Remuneration policies and decisions are made through a transparent and independent process.

Practice 7.1

The board has remuneration policies and procedures to determine the remuneration of directors and senior management, which takes into account the demands, complexities and performance of the company as well as skills and experience required. The remuneration policies and practices should appropriately reflect the different roles and responsibilities of non-executive directors, executive directors and senior management. The policies and procedures are periodically reviewed and made available on the company’s website.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Nomination and Remuneration Committee (“NRC”) is tasked to review and recommend to the Board the remuneration package of the Executive Directors (“EDs”) and Non-Executive Directors (“NEDs”). The Board when deliberating the total remuneration package of the EDs will ensure that the level of remuneration is generally set to attract, retain and motivate EDs. The component of the remuneration is therefore structured to link the remuneration package with corporate and individual performance of the same industry. The NEDs are remunerated with fees in accordance with the experience, expertise, and level of responsibilities undertaken by the NEDs. The remuneration policy is periodically reviewed and available on the Group’s website here
